

14th Polish-Japanese Joint Seminar on Micro and Nano Analysis

The first announcement

September 3-6, 2024

Toyama International Conference Center,
ANA CROWNE PLAZA TOYAMA
Toyama, Japan

This conference is a biennial event and alternately organized in Japan and Poland: Warsaw (September, 1997), Kyoto (December, 1998), Krakow (July, 2000), Toyama (November, 2002), Niedzica (August, 2004), Toyama (September, 2006), Warsaw (September, 2008), Kyoto (September, 2010), Sieniawa (September, 2012), Sapporo (October, 2014), Gniew (September, 2016), Fukuoka (September, 2018) and Ustroń (September, 2022).

Since the physical properties of materials strongly depend on atomic arrangements and the distribution of impurity atoms, it is of technological importance to obtain structural and chemical information at the atomic scale for developing new structural and functional materials. This seminar aims to discuss recent progress in structural and chemical analyses using microscopy and microanalysis techniques and their application to the field of materials science. This seminar will also allow scientists to establish valuable contacts, develop international collaborations and improve their international cooperative projects.
